

Artinbox is a leading company in the sector of exhibition curation, installations and creation of contemporary artworks.

We are a team of young and motivated professionals who work enthusiastically in the field of museum curation, carrying out its different work phases: from planning to the creation of works and set designs; from the adaptation of location (construction of light box, partitions or rooms, painting etc.) to the arrangement and hanging of works.

Attention to the needs of our clients, professionalism, reliability, attention to details and rapid completion of work is what enables us to organise the most important contemporary art exhibitions, both in Italy and abroad.

Through the years Artinbox has consolidated and expanded its competences and its own network of resources, creating the conditions for constant improvement and for the broadening of its own professional horizons, planning further growth to make the company proactive and competitive not just in the museum sector but also in the fair one and in the installation of showrooms.
